Plan a yearlong campaign around our focus each issue

All themes are subject to change per editorial discretion.

JANUARY/ FEBRUARY

Marking our entrée into 2026, our January/February issue will spotlight dermocosmetics, hair health and sustainability—three pillars driving next-gen beauty innovation.

It will explore topics such as longevity, peptides, scalp care and the skinification of hair, alongside biotech-powered, upcycled and fermented solutions. From ingredient breakthroughs to formulation strategies, this issue will uncover what's shaping the future of skin and hair wellness.

FEBRUARY (ONLINE ONLY)

February will highlight the science and strategy behind mild cleansing, examining such areas as biosurfactants, microbiome-friendly formulas and anti-irritation innovation.

Guided by expert insights into gentle yet effective care across skin and hair, it will also seek to reveal how brands are addressing the needs of Gen Alpha and sensitive skin.

MARCH

This spring, our March 2026 edition will investigate forward-thinking beauty with features related to longevity science, climate-adaptive care and cutting-edge testing.

From senolytics and sun protection, to microbiome analysis and smartphone-powered claims support, this issue will spotlight innovations like these shaping the evolving beauty landscape—topped of with expert insights and the 2026 C&T Allē Awards finalist shortlist.

APRIL

The April edition of C&T will dive into beauty's latest transformations of zero-waste design, multifunctional makeup and holistic care.

From waterless formats and lip-care hybrids to nutricosmetics and mind-body wellness, this issue will highlight topics such as low-impact solutions and elevated performance—and feature expert insights and exclusive commentary on the 2026 C&T Allē Awards finalist shortlist.

MAY

In May, we will probe the science of aging beautifully—focusing on concepts like wrinkle reduction, skin lifting and fatigue-fighting care and tapping into longevity experts for new insights.

We will also explore the rise of neurocosmetics, where wellness meets formulation; for example, through anti-stress and sensitivity-focused actives. Finally, we'll feature the 2026 C&T Allē Awards finalists, complete with product descriptions.

JUNE

From gloss and other sensory aspects of hair to high-performance sun care, the June issue will kick off the summer with an examination of the science behind shine, protection and precision.

Readers will also uncover insights related to gentle cleansing, sensory-friendly SPF and the tools transforming formulation—from benchtop mixers to AI-powered QA. Plus, experts will weigh in on sun protection and we'll reveal the 2026 C&T Allē Award winners.

Themes listed are examples of content covered each month. All content listed each month may not be included.

Plan a yearlong campaign around our focus each issue

All themes are subject to change per editorial discretion.

JULY/ AUGUST

The July/August issue will celebrate innovation with a focus on mindful beauty and cutting-edge biotech. Content will explore such topics as how emotional wellness, sustainability and ethics are reshaping formulations—alongside breakthroughs in ferments, exosomes and recombinant proteins.

Plus, experts will provide perspectives on biotech's growing role in beauty. And, as a grand finale, the issue will showcase beauty innovation by celebrating the 2026 C&T Allē Awards honorees.

AUGUST (ONLINE ONLY)

Online in August, we'll go back to the essentials with a refresh on formulating basics — seeking answers, for example, to preservation strategies, stability challenges and other formulating hurdles.

Whether you're refining core skills or building a solid foundation, expert insights and practical guidance will help readers navigate key formulation principles with confidence and precision.

SEPTEMBER

This fall, our September issue will examine skin care through clinical and personalized lenses — e.g., from post-procedure dermocosmetics to tech-driven solutions grounded in AI and epigenetics.

Readers will gain insights such as how slow beauty trends like hormonal balance and sleep support are redefining routines, alongside expert insights into science-backed formulas and the next evolution of tailored, dermatologist-aligned care.

OCTOBER

The October issue will investigate innovations in color and care—from technologies like functional pigments to concepts such as inclusive and skin-loving makeup.

The issue will also explore the latest in hair and scalp treatments, including, for example, sebum regulation, split end repair and dandruff control. Expert insights will round out the issue with a focus on breakthroughs in color cosmetic science.

NOVEMBER/ DECEMBER

This issue will spotlight next-gen body care including such topics as advanced deodorants, fragrance and moisturizers to microbiome-friendly solutions.

Readers will also gain insight into the future of product safety with coverage on subjects like preservation strategies, transparency, evolving regulations, alternative ingredients and the like—alongside expert commentary on how the industry will strengthen trust through safety, science and innovation.

DECEMBER (ONLINE ONLY)

Online in December, we will focus on optimizing cosmetic formulas for maximum performance and stability. Topics will include ideas like synergistic ingredient strategies, enhanced preservation systems and formulation tweaks that boost efficacy.

Expert insights will also highlight how product developers can refine their approach to create smarter, more resilient formulations that meet today's performance and shelf-life demands.

Electronic Files

PREFERRED FILE FORMAT

High-resolution PDF (300 dpi). Ad page templates for InDesign and PDF presets are available. Contact your sales representative.

Professional Tip: When creating your PDF, be sure to offset your crop marks to the bleed size, otherwise the crop marks will appear within the bleed area and potentially print in the magazine. There is no need to create crop marks for partial ad sizes.

- On full-page ads, all vital copy should be no closer than 1/4" to the trim. Less than 1/4" there is a chance the text could be trimmed off. Allow 1/8" bleed beyond trim, if ad bleeds.
- Any lines must be 1/2 pt. or larger.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- Furnish graphics to size. PDF or EPS formats are preferred. JPEG's are accepted, but must be 300 dpi resolution or higher.
Web graphics will not work.
- Save all files including the graphic elements in CMYK mode unless a spot color is going to be used for output.
- Provide all files at a resolution of 300 dpi or higher.
- Include copies of all fonts and graphic elements used to create the file.
- Use only OpenType fonts.
- Use collect functions found in layout software.
- Do NOT send Quark, Corel Draw, Microsoft Word, PowerPoint or Publisher files.

SENDING FILES

- If your file is 20 MB or smaller, email it to Sarah Krotz at skrotz@allured.com. Please indicate which magazine and issue the ad is for.
- For larger files, send through free large file transfer online services, such as Dropbox, TransferBigFiles, Hightail, etc.
